In April 2007, Mayor Oscar B. Goodman, the 19th mayor of Las Vegas, captured 84 percent of the vote in his reelection effort to a third 4-year term.

Mayor Goodman has been a champion of downtown revitalization, focusing his efforts on creating a downtown urban village filled with small businesses, boutiques, fine restaurants, bookstores and an thriving art community.

The self-proclaimed "happiest mayor in the universe," Goodman was born and raised in Philadelphia, graduating from Haverford College and receiving his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He has become one of the nation's premier criminal defense attorneys.

Goodman and his wife, Carolyn, have been married since 1962 and moved to Las Vegas two years later with $87 in their pockets. The couple raised four children in Las Vegas. All four currently make Las Vegas their home.
